RAO AND INDIRA YALAMANCHILI

Rao and Indira Yalamanchili immigrated to the United States from India in 1971 and Rao initially worked for Los Angeles County as a civil engineer. In 1975 he and Indira had the opportunity to become property managers of the apartment building in which they lived. This launched a career change for them and they began buying and managing apartment buildings full time. They moved to Arcadia in 1977 and their company office has been based there since 1981. Their 4 children Pavani, Pallavi, Vipula and Srinivas all attended Arcadia public schools and have all worked at the family business over the years. They now have 8 Grandchildren.

Being active within their community is important to Rao and Indira and they are involved with many local organizations. They have been important benefactors in the founding of local Hindu Temples in Baldwin Park, Montebello and Riverside. Rao has also served on the Board of Directors of Watts Learning Center Charter School since 2015.

Rao and Indira are honored to support Foothill Unity Center. They, along with their family and company employees, have enjoyed getting to know the team at the Center during onsite volunteer events and look forward to continuing work together to help fulfill the organization's mission of helping neighbors in need.
